Tarrant County

A Texas Community Guide

Welcome to Tarrant County!

Settlement in Tarrant County began near present-day Azle in 1846. Today, the county is home to thriving cities, welcoming communities, and endless opportunities. Whether you're looking to raise a family, pursue education, explore local attractions, or enjoy retirement, Tarrant County offers a rich blend of history, growth, and Texas charm.

Tarrant County is made up of over 40 great cities, each with its own unique character and community spirit. This brochure highlights only a selection of them—primarily those with larger populations or broader name recognition but every city in the county plays an important role in shaping the vibrant culture and success of the region.
